The world-renowned company WORLDSTARS, a prestigious show organizer featuring dancers from the Paris Opera, La Scala, the Royal Ballet in London, and other leading theaters—who have captivated thousands of hearts worldwide—presents the exclusive production "By the Beautiful Blue Danube", starring ballet soloists from Europe's top theaters

The premiere of J. Strauss' ballet took place in 1924. 17 The premiere took place in May 1924 at the La Cigale Theatre in Paris. This ballet is light, sparkling, and full of life. The story unfolds in a bustling Viennese café during the golden age of operetta. The characters enjoy life, flirting with ladies, reveling in the waltz melodies, and surrendering to the magic of dance to Johann Strauss' most iconic tune, "By the Beautiful Blue Danube." It seems that nothing worse than a pickpocketing incident could happen. Yet, even in a whirlwind of laughter and merriment, a heart can still be broken.

The WORLDSTARS company features ballet soloists and artists from the Paris Opera, La Scala, the Royal Ballet in London, the Czech National Ballet, the Barcelona Ballet, the Bordeaux National Ballet, the Royal Danish Ballet, and other renowned theaters. Today, WORLDSTARS projects are held in Latvia, Estonia, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland, Austria, and the UAE, offering audiences the opportunity to experience world-class ballet that inspires and moves. The main mission of WORLDSTARS is to preserve the heritage of classical ballet at the highest level.
