Foto autors: Ventspils Tūrisma informācijas centra foto arhīvs

The restaurant "Pils krogs" is located in Ventspils, Jāņa iela 17, in the Castle of the Livonian Order, the history of which dates back more than 700 years.

It is located in one of the castle halls, which used to be a pub back then. The restaurant is designed in ancient style, preserving the authentic furniture and interior elements.

It is a nice and cozy restaurant with relaxing atmosphere, which is a perfect place for brunch or lunch, including a business lunch and a romantic dinner, or to simply get together with friends.

The guests can choose between delicious and high-quality meals and beverages, including dishes that are prepared according to ancient Latvian recipes and that were served by our ancestors for various occasions and in various centuries.
