

Jūrkalne Folk house

Foto autors Jūrkalnes Tautas nama foto arhīvs

Folk house is situated in the building that was built in the middle of the XVIII century and has a tavern in it. In order to preserve this more than 135 years old culturally and historically important building in 2011 it was thoroughly renovated. Currently, various events are organized in the Folk House, the "Storm Museum" exhibition and the exhibition hall are located on the second floor.
