Our life has as much meaning as we are needed by someone. To walk, to breathe, to travel – isn't it enjoyable?
o have seeing eyes and hearing ears when walking or driving through the city and nature paths in its vicinity (the Vasenieki swamp, Zlēkas..), to stop and bless, to let your heart unfold.
It is pleasing to radiate and distribute what belongs to us and know there is someone who gets it. Yesterday is gone.
Tomorrow is not yet here. Only today is what belongs to us. Let us start now!
