

Acoustic concert By the Same Fire by the band The Sound Poets

Acoustic concerts have become a tradition of the group "The Sound Poets", this is the fourth series of acoustic concerts, with which the musicians of the group will visit different cities of Latvia 2022. In 2023, in honor of the release of the album "Pie vienas oguns", the group played big concerts in Liepāja and Sigulda, and now "The Sound Poets" wants to convey the music of the new album to its listeners in a peaceful and subdued atmosphere. It is expected that in these spring acoustic concerts "By one fire" the listeners will experience an exchange of live energy that can only be obtained in such close encounters.
