

Concert “Moon Music and Poetry”

PARTICIPATING IN THE CONCERT:

MoonBach (Iran, Germany) – violinist Azadeh Maghsoodi and pianist Andis Paegle

Rēzija Kalniņa (readings)

The program created especially for the “Latvija” concert hall will combine atmospheric music and Persian poetry in the readings of actress Rēzija Kalniņa, introducing surprising collaborations between several cultures. Themes by Johann Sebastian Bach will be played with improvisations of Persian and Latvian music, reaching as far as the works of Astor Piazzolla and jazz arrangements. The choice of music and poetry in the program is united by the Moon, the protector of all the lonely and sad, the inspirer of composers and muses.
