

IX world dictation in Latvian language

This year, the world dictation in Latvian will take place on Saturday, October 14th, 12.15 This will be the ninth time of the dictation. To participate in the dictation in person, you must register in advance on the website www.raksti.org, where you can choose one of 16 writing locations in 11 Latvian cities – including Ventspils.

The writing of the dictation will take place in Ventspils Ventspils University in auditorium D 103, where the total number of available places is 60. It will be possible to register for dictation writing in person until the evening of October 12.strong, . On the other hand, those who did not manage to register in time will be able to do so at the venue shortly before the start of the dictation, but it should be noted that this will only be possible if there are free seats, so the organizers recommend registering on the website in time.

World dictation in the Latvian language is a private initiative aimed at developing the Latvian language and strengthening its roots in today's multicultural environment. Within nine years, it has grown from a small event organized by language enthusiasts into an international project, in which 2000 interested people from 29 countries participated last year. Every year, one of the modern Latvian writers creates a text of about 300 words, which is dictated by a famous Latvian actor. This year, writer Māris Bērziņš was chosen as the author of the dictation.
