

Concert THREE OSOKINS

Performers: pianists Sergejs, Andrejs and Georgijs Osokins The three Osokins have entered the world of music with their unique piano sound – every touch of the piano keys is thoughtful, felt and transformed into intangible sound vibrations that reveal the most subtle nuances of music. Father and sons Osokins are each a bright and talented personality in their own right, and playing together is a creative challenge. The joint concerts of Sergejs, Andrejs and Georgijs Osokins are an event with a deeply thought-out message, always featuring the golden repertoire of piano music.

In the concert in Ventspils, the Osokins will perform piano masterpieces by Western European and Latvian composers, as well as transcriptions specially composed for this concert, making this evening a feast for classical music connoisseurs and music lovers alike. The Concert of the Three Osokins will launch the 5th anniversary season of the Concert Hall "Latvija", which will offer a number of ambitious musical events.
