

Eiroradio Christmas Concert

On December 17 at 16.00 will be held in the "Latvija" concert hall Euroradio's Christmas concert, which is broadcast live by Latvian Radio 3 "Klasika". will be heard in many countries around the world, but concertgoers will be able to enjoy this event in person. State chamber orchestra "Sinfonietta Rīga", pianist Daumants Liepiņš and organist Liene Andreta Kalnciems under the direction of conductor Normunds Shne will perform compositions by Georg Friedrich Handel, Ferenc Liszt, Alfred Kalniņš and Rihard Dubras.

"Latvija" Concert Hall in cooperation with the European Broadcasting Union and Latvian Radio 3 "Klasika" will participate in Euroradio's Christmas Day, which this year will be celebrated on the Fourth Advent, but concertgoers will have the opportunity to experience this unique event in person. The Euroradio Christmas concert will be broadcast in several member states of the European Broadcasting Union through the live broadcast of Latvian Radio 3 "Klasika". Since 1995, the Euroradio Christmas Day concert has been one of the most beautiful events in Euroradio's seasonal offer, and the live broadcasts of these concerts have a very wide audience in Europe, North America and elsewhere.

Please note that due to the international live broadcast, entrance to the concert is only allowed until 15.55!

An hour before the concert – at 15.00 – concertgoers are invited to participate in pre-concert talks with artists in the "Greenroom", which can be visited free of charge.

Organised by SIA "Kurzemes filharmonija".
