On September 29th at 3:00 PM, the Ventspils Cultural Center will host a solo concert by Kaspars Antess, a schlager musician born in Ventspils. In the program titled "Mēs satiksīsimies" ("We Will Meet"), Antess will perform exclusively his own compositions, including popular and well-known schlager hits such as "Neskaties atpakaļ" ("Don't Look Back"), "Līkneļlīnijas" ("Lines of Fate"), "Saldā dzīve" ("Sweet Life"), "Stabulīte" ("The Little Flute"), and this year's finalist in the "Latvijas Sirdsdziesma" poll, "Es tev novēlu" ("I Wish You") among others. Several songs will also be premiered at this concert. With this concert, Antess celebrates 15 years of songwriting, which began in 2009 with his first work "Ir tikai rīts" ("It's Just Morning"). This marked the start of his collaboration with lyricist Guntars Račs, together creating 10 original songs featured on his debut album "Neskaties atpakaļ." Later, Kaspars began writing his own lyrics, and his compositions have been performed by other artists, including Dzintars Čiča. For the song "Līkneļlīnijas," Antess received the Copyright Infinity Award in 2018; this track was the most played song on Latvian Radio 2 in 2016 and was named "Schlager Song of the Year" by "Latvijas Šlāgeraptauja."

In addition to the concert, Kaspars Antess will also release his second CD album, which will be available at the event in Ventspils.

Joining Kaspars in the concert will be Anatolijs Livča (piano, instrumental group leader) Raivo Stašāns (saxophone) Viktors Veļičko (double bass) Eduards Bariss (guitar), Uģis Krūskops (drums), Oskars Nejs (percussion), Laima Miltiņa un Elīna Čāmpere (vocalists).
