“If our life is like a journey, figuratively speaking, then I want to spend this journey smiling,” says musician, singer, and songwriter Jānis Stībelis as he invites everyone to his autumn concerts titled Smiling. “I want to share with you emotions intertwined with optimistic, positive, and romantic songs, so that during these concerts we can all smile together.”

The concerts will feature new melodies from the album Smiling as well as the audience’s favorite songs.

Joining Jānis Stībelis in these concerts are Raimonds Macats, Jānis Kalniņš, Reinis Ozoliņš, Nellija Bubujanca, and Iluta Alsberga.

Special guests will appear at each concert.
