Concert “Gems for the Piano” in the Concert Hall “Latvija”.

Following the lecture, at 19:00, Diāna Zandberga’s piano music concert “Gems for the Piano” will be taking place at the Concert Hall “Latvija”. The idea behind the concert is to expand the boundaries of piano music by offering piano arrangements of vocal and instrumental masterpieces, as well as incorporating choreographic elements that will blend with the piano performance. The programme will feature works by Johann Sebastian Bach, Franz Liszt, Maurice Ravel, as well as Estonian composer Lepo Sumera and Latvian composer Anitra Tumševica, with premieres that include dance elements. It will be a memorable experience for all music enthusiasts, providing an opportunity to enjoy a top-tier artistic performance.
