In the spirit of Women's Day, a musical and poetic adventure with Gints Grāvelis and Andris Bulis, or the duet “GraBulis”, will take place on 9 March at 19.00 at the Piltene Culture House. The concert program will feature both well-known and new, undiscovered songs performed by both actors. Andris Bulis humorously comments on the concert program: “We are two great actors – Gints is great, I'm the other one. This is a slightly charming, heartfelt, fun, entertaining, melancholic, sing-along, romantic, 'who knows how it will end,' improvised program. Gints sings... I interfere!”

The concert will feature heartfelt jokes and musical surprises. The event will take place by candlelight at small tables. There is an option to reserve a table by calling 22420395. More information is available on the Ventspils Municipality website:
